

Outbound Mobility within the European Union

Below we set out the current position for post-Brexit entry requirements for touring musicians and their crew entering European member states. Please note that this is not legal advice. You should attain expert counsel before planning travel to the EU.

FOR SOURCE INFO CLICK FLAG

Green

Short-term entry granted with no cost

Austria

Visa may be needed for gainful employment

Hungary

No permit needed

Belgium

Permit free for 21-90 days

Ireland

Common Travel Area

Czech Republic

Permit free for 90 days

Lithuania

Permit free for 90 days

Denmark

Special Individual Qualification required for 90 day permit exemption

Luxembourg

Permit free for 90 days

Finland

Permit free for 90 days with invite or contract

Netherlands

6 weeks in 13 permit free

France

Permit free for 90 days

Norway

Permit free for 14 days

Germany

Permit free for 90 days

Poland

Permit free for 30 days

FOR SOURCE INFO CLICK FLAG

Yellow

Seeking further clarity

Cyprus

Work permit required for stays up to 90 days

Latvia

Permit free for 14 days

Estonia

Registration prior to travel- permit free for 90 days

Malta

Employment license required

Greece

Short term work unclear

Romania

Work permit needed

Italy

Permit free for 90 days but may need justification

Slovakia

Permit free for 30 days but registration

Slovenia

Schengen visa may be needed

Sweden

Permit free for 14 days only with an invitation from approved orgs.

FOR SOURCE INFO CLICK FLAG

Red

Possible cost and working visa

Bulgaria

Permit or visa required

Croatia

Work permit required

Portugal

Temporary stay visa required for work up to 90 days

Spain

Work visa required

We believe this information is accurate up until the date marked on this document.

Updated versions will be published in due course to reflect new information.